

Dear Parent:

We would like to continue the practice of encouraging students to read books appropriate to their reading level during the summer. Third graders are required to read three chapter books, each with a minimum of fifty pages. Books from the following categories should be read: mystery or adventure, biography, and one selection of their own. I also suggest that students enter a summer reading program at a local library or at Barnes and Noble Bookstore to enhance their appreciation for reading.

The following books should not be selected, as we will be reading them in class:

Little House in the Big Wood
Sarah, Plain and Tall
Black Gold

In His service,

Mrs. Scibelli
